

ABOUT Kathryn Rafter

Kathryn is the founder of Atlantic Consulting Partners – a firm that specializes in guiding organizations through critical transitions. Kathryn is known for delivering practical solutions when companies are confronted with the need to accelerate new strategies, launch important initiatives and achieve urgent performance mandates.

She is adept at providing the framework and guidance to advance leadership and business capabilities. An accomplished Executive Coach, clients appreciate her straightforward approach and gracious humor when dispensing feedback and advice. The highly renowned TriMetrix™ multi-dimensional assessment is the basis for this work.

Kathryn has helped companies of all sizes achieve their potential and deliver results. Her clients include: IBM, Pepsi, Pacific Gas and Electric, Transamerica, First Data Corporation, First American, Dell Financial Services, Delta Air Lines, Boston Scientific, Quintiles and the NCAA.

Her Pro Bono projects include: Organisation Sove Lavi (“Saving Lives”, Haiti), the Provincetown Film Festival, the Great Schooner Regatta and the Aids Support Group of Cape Cod.

Kathryn formerly worked for AMR / American Airlines. Her positions included Managing Director, Corporate Training & Development, Corporate Finance & Analysis and Sr. Industrial Engineer for Passenger Services.

Academic Background

B.S. in Transportation & Travel: Niagara University
Harvard Business School’s Executive Education Workshop for Human Resource Executives

Contact - Kathryn@AtlanticConsultingPartners.com ... 214.358.4772 ...
<http://atlanticconsultingpartners.com/>